Pollution Control Department has got the NACC Integrity Awards from Office of the National Anti-Corruption Commission (NACC)

Mr. Pralong Dumrongthai, Director General of Pollution Control Department (PCD), Ministry of Natural Resources and Environment (MONRE) revealed that Office of the National Anti-Corruption Commission (NACC) announced the 8th NACC Integrity Awards resulted from the assessment of organizations or institutes including public, state enterprise, private, and other corporation sectors which PCD has got the honorable mention of this award (2 years in a row). This achievement in terms of empirical data is the evidence that there is actual performance in 4 assessments namely (1) Organization performs missions with readiness and responsibility (2) Organization performs missions in accordance with rule of law (3) Organization pays attention to human rights and follows international morality approach and (4) Organization executes tasks with integrity, has transparent and equitable procurement system, and also combats corruption, bribery and graft.

Mr. Pralong said that through the previous 3-4 years, General Surasak Kanjanarat, Minister of Natural Resources and Environment has emphasized the integrity of organizational operation in the Ministry that there must be no corruption in procurement absolutely. PCD is one of organizations in the Ministry that has quite hard and risky operation. The executives and staffs have so far paid strong attention to integrity both in the internal operational process and the operation regarding clients or stakeholders such as in the case of inspection and law enforcement operation, we must have readiness and responsibility, operate in accordance with rule of law, pay attention to international principle of human rights, and have integrity with no bribery and graft in all cases. These are operated in order to keep integrity standard of organization and build confidence to all sectors which PCD have to do them better.

Mr. Pralong said that the NACC Integrity Awards is an activity which rewards to honor of virtue, morality and honesty with the objective to raise integrity of the country, to create encouragement and give praise to organizations or institutes including public, state enterprise, private and other corporation sectors in performing good model, as well as to influence society to build value in promoting governance management, professional ethics and corporate social responsibility. The organizations which are qualified will be rewarded the NACC Integrity Awards in praising their honor to be apparent to society.
